Dear Howard:

Now that I have had a few hours to get back to normal thinking I have the American Can Lab chart and location.

By this time Continental Can's Baltimore operations have probably furnished [redacted] address, but to be sure it is - 25X1

[redacted] 25X1

My personal interest is a cracked crankshaft on a big steam engine on which the whole Cleveland Plant's operations depend, so is hard to put aside. We check it with supersonic instruments at each stop of the operations, usually once in 24 hours, and guess whether to go ahead or shut down. The replace shaft under repairs will not be available for 20 days. Nice way to live.
